NOTICE OF PROPOSED ABANDONMENT

Thomas Orr, Trustee for the above-captioned case, has filed a notice of intent to abandon certain property described below as being of inconsequential value to the estate.

If any creditor or other party in interest has an objection to the proposed abandonment, the objection and a request for a hearing on such objection shall be in writing, served upon the Trustee and filed with the Clerk of the United States Bankruptcy Court. Such objection and request shall be filed with the Clerk and served upon the Trustee no later than November 18, 2009.

In the event an objection is timely filed, a hearing will be held before the Honorable Kathryn C. Ferguson on

DATE: December 1, 2009
TIME: 11:00 am
COURTROOM: 2

If no objection is filed with the Clerk and served upon the Trustee on or before November 18, 2009, the abandonment will take effect on the fifth day following the last day to file objections.

The description of the property to be abandoned is as follows:

Default judgment awarding $39,307.10 against debtors father on a preference. The Trustee was unable to collect the judgment as the father has no assets and is on social security.

The Trustee attempted to sell the judgment but received offers less than $500.

After attorneys fees and administration costs, there would be no funds remaining for unsecured creditors.

The liens on the property to be abandoned are as follows (including amount claimed due):
None

The amount of equity claimed as exempt by the debtor is:

None

Request for additional information about the property to be abandoned should be directed to the Trustee
